

Jürgen Büschges

born 1959, married and father of two children

Jürgen Büschges started his professional career with an auditing firm, having completed a vocational training programme in banking and management studies. He then moved on to take managerial roles in the asset management business at INKA GmbH, as well as Trinkaus & Burkhardt. Jürgen Büschges joined Delbrück Asset Management in March 1999 as Managing Director, responsible for overseeing the Fundamental Analysis, Portfolio Management, and Product Development divisions. In October 2002, he joined Grundeigentümer Versicherung where he became responsible for the founding and development of Grundeigentümer GET Capital AG as a member of the Management Board.

Jürgen Büschges has been a member of the Management Board since 1 July 2004 and became a partner of GET Capital AG on 1 July 2006.

